

To whom it may concern,

I do not believe this RM is necessary. No problems exist on 160M requiring subbands. 160M is my main band of operation and experimentation in all of my 36 years of ham radio and I have never seen a need for subbands.